This initiative is sponsored by the City of Saginaw, Texas, Department of Economic Development and encourages a local business economy that is participatory, engaged, and informed about the resources available to strengthen and enhance their business practices. Local Business Forums are available to all business stakeholders in the community; including commercial property owners, company owners, home-based business owners, managers, brokers, realtors, investors, developments, corporate representatives, elected officials, commercial lenders, education institution representatives, 501(c)3 and 501(c)6 organizations, civic groups, and more. If you are interested in learning more about what the City of Saginaw local economy is about and what resources are available to grow and support entrepreneurship and employment right here at home, this casual breakfast event is for you!

These events will be held quarterly in an effort to keep the Saginaw business community apprised and involved in the future of the City. Keep an eye out for future events.
